

Planned Gifts

You can support Boys and Girls Home of Alaska, Inc. in a variety of ways, including through your estate. Including BGHA in your estate plan will not only assist you in reaching and achieving your own philanthropic and charitable giving goals, but it will also allow BGHA to continue its mission of improving the lives of children and families.

There are many charitable planned giving options available to you. For example, you can make a planned gift to Boys and Girls Home of Alaska by naming Boys and Girls Home of Alaska as a beneficiary of your last will and testament, life insurance policy or retirement plan.

You can also name Boys and Girls Home of Alaska as a beneficiary of a charitable trust. Your attorney or financial advisor can advise you of the various types of charitable trusts and assist you in establishing a trust that is tailored to your personal needs.

Some of the above-mentioned planned giving strategies may have a greater tax benefit to you than others, so please consult with your attorney or financial advisor on which strategy would work best for you.
